

Good Evening - Last night I was working on this email and sent it out before I had completed my work. I hope this didn't cause you as much pain as it caused me!! Below are the wines we are pouring... regardless of what mother nature has in store....

I hope you can attend this exciting Friday night Cabernet Sauvignon wine tasting.

Where: Santiam Wine Company 1930 Commercial St SE, Salem, Oregon

Date: Friday, December 19th

Time 5ish-7ish

What: The deep dark Cabernet Sauvignon Grape!

Cost: $28. for the first five pours, Add $10. for the Super Pour, Total $38.

Remember you can share.

2006 Owen Roe Yakima Valley Red Yakima Valley Washington $40.

2006 Mark Ryan Water Witch ~Klipsun Vineyard~ Red Mountain Washington $47.

2003 Beringer Private Reserve Napa Valley $50.

"The blend of course is Beringers beautiful 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon Private Reserve, always proving that the sum is better than the component parts. A dark ruby/purple color is accompanied by a big, sweet nose of smoked meats, black currant jam, chocolate, pain grille, and espresso roast. Rich, full-bodied, and deep, with silky tannin and loads of length and concentration, it should drink well for 15-20 years. 92 Points Robert Parker

2005 Paul Hobbs CrossBarn Cabernet Sauvignon $40.

Deep garnet in color and perfumed with blackberry and tobacco, this well-structured cabernet sauvignon offers generous, concentrated flavors of black and red fruits framed by silky tannins and accented with cedar and spice on a long finish. Alcohol 14.7% winemaker's notes

2004 Paradigm Cabernet Sauvignon Oakville Estate Napa Valley $64.50

A big ripe beautiful wine from what has proven to be a very consistent vineyard estate. Fully ripe fruit aromas remind me of summertime. Plum, fig, berry and spice all come together in the nose leading you to flavors that match. Nice purity of fruit with a round silky, and rich mouth feel. The tannins are soft and lightly add a mouth-coating texture and structure to the wine. A very tasty Cabernet from a great vintage. Heidi Peterson Barrett, Winemaker This is a California wine

Super Pour $10. (Optional)

2005 Hewitt Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon Rutherford Napa Valley $92.

Hewitt is an up-and-coming Cult Cabernet from Napa Valley's Rutherford Bench. From Tom Rinaldi, former winemaker at Duckhorn, this should be on every Napa Cab collector's short list. 94 Points Wine Spectator: "Intense and concentrated, big and expressive, with layers of ripe currant, plum, sage, pencil lead and black cherry, all flowing rather seamlessly. Tightly focused, this is rich without being heavy, ending with a long, persistent finish. Drink now through 2014." Ranked #69 In the Top One Hundred from the Wine Spectator!

~Ewald Mosler the famed German Wine Imported from Portland will be here on Saturday, December 20th to share with us a few gems from his collection!
This is a complimentary wine tasting...Please join us 1:00-4PM

Santiam Wine Company will be open from 11-3 PM on Sunday, December 21st to make up for the snow days! Shop, Shop, Shop!
