2007 Black Stallion Estate Cabernet Sauvignon $20.

Rich, smooth wine entices with fruity aromas of raspberry jam and plums and is nicely spiced with sarsaparilla, black pepper and chocolate notes. A very food friendly wine; pairs well with everything from duck to a hamburger!

2008 Napa Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon $24.

With a shading of wood, the well put-together '08 Napa Cellars is a fine, straight-up Cabernet; sturdy with black fruit flavors and sweet tannins; satisfying in the finish. 90 Points

2007 Gott 7 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon $44.

"Shows a tightly wound structure, with big, hard tannins wrapped like a vise around fresh flavors of blackberries, cherries and cassis. There's a firm, minerally tang of iron at the core of this age worthy wine. Will benefit now with decanting. Will begin to mellow in 2015. I'll open early and decant!

94 Points Wine Enthusiast

2007 Frank Family Cabernet Sauvignon $48.

The dense dark plum/purple-tinged 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa is composed of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Merlot and 2% Petit Verdot. The fragrant bouquet of blueberries and flowers is followed by admirable complexity, sweet tannins, a medium to full-bodied, graceful mouthfeel and no hard edges. Drink this outstanding Napa Cabernet over the next 15+ years. 93 Points Robert Parker

This ancient winery, established in 1884, resurfaced in 1992.

Super Pour: Optional 2 oz for $7. 1/2 pour $4. how about a glass ... $20 per 6 oz glass

2007 Cakebread Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley $74.

The 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon is among the finest "regular" Cabernet Sauvignons I have tasted from Cakebread. It exhibits a dense ruby/purple color, stunning purity, subtle notes of smoke, black currants, blackberries, spring flowers and toast, good acidity and ripe tannin. This full-bodied yet graceful, deep, silky Cabernet Sauvignon is already irresistible, but it will provide provocative and complex drinking for 15-20 years. 92 Points Robert Parker
