2015 Canvas Cabernet Sauvignon California $14

Dark garnet in color. On the palate there are loads of dark fruits, plum, oak and fine tannins throughout. Straight forward for sure, and nothing layered or complex, but I could do this as an everyday glass, no problem!

2015 Ferrandiere Syrah France $10

First impression violet, then hints of woodland. Rounder, generous with a with a long finish. Food pairing: meats cooked in sauce and roasted duckling

2015 Bonny Doon $%&*#1 Merlot CA. $14

You may well be looking at me sideways for saying it, but I will be drinking some $%&*#! Merlot.

Good, deep ruby color, with a lovely dusty aroma of fraise de bois, licorice and gingerbread, with the subtlest suggestion of garrigue de Provence; Quite elegant on the palate when first opened, the wine continues to build in amplitude in the glass with more air. The Merlot has wonderful natural acidity (go figure!), medium tannins and great persistence

2015 Motorosso Vino Rosso Italy $10

Motorosso is a lively, easy going blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Sangiovese from the Veneto. There is, of course, a dramatic story behind the playful name and imagery. You can experience

2015 Chateau Malbat Bordeaux France $11

The wine is rich and packed with superripe blackberry fruits. While there is acidity to keep the wine crisp, it does have a heavy feel to it from the high alcohol that also brings a pepper edge. Drink from 2018.

2014 Sharecroppers Syrah WA $14

This bold Syrah has hues of dark Ruby with aromas of blackberry, candied cherries and allspice. Hints of tobacco and anise are layered amongst fruit notes of red plum, cranberry and dusty earth. Balanced acidity and brambleberry nuances lead to a lasting, mouthwatering finish.
