2010 de Leonardo Vineyards Refosco, Italy $10

Dark black ruby. With a little air this wine develops a gorgeous nose of cinnamon-scented, warm, moist, intensely minerally gravel, along with very nice blackberry and plum fruit. Very soft and mouthfilling, yet with a certain weightless character. Medium-bodied, nicely balanced, with lots of ripe berry fruit and spiced sandstone in the finish.

2010 Nuevo Mundo Carmenère, Chile $11

Fresh and well-structured, this Carmenère sees only 30% French Oak following fermentation while the rest was kept in stainless steel before bottling. The grapes were picked at their optimum ripeness for an aromatic, fresh and balanced wine, showing all the potential of its terroir. Produced from organically farmed grapes in Chile's Isla de Maipo region and is certified carbon neutral.

2010 Elk Cove Vineyard La Sirene Barbera & Cabernet OR $12

This wine is a blend of 60% Barbera and 40% Cabernet Sauvignon from the Columbia Valley. It has the charming forward cherry-blackberry fruit of the Barbera and structure and body from the Cabernet Sauvignon. It's a great current drinking wine and great value.

2010 Charles & Charles Red Blend, Washington $10

Deep, dark purple with a strawberry red outer ring. The nose is plum, black currant, dark chocolate and lilacs. A plush, velvety smooth mouthfeel, the flavors of the wine coat your mouth. The dark fruit and chocolate of the Cabernet Sauvignon dominates the taste upfront, while the blueberry of the Syrah comes through on the mid-palate. A reasonably long chocolate covered blueberry finish.

N/V Fred's Red Mendocino County, CA $11

He was the first in a long-line of herding dogs known worldwide and now he gives his name to a blend of Syrah and Zinfandel create Fred's Red with a clear ruby color and a luscious aroma of mixed blackberries, blueberries, cherries, and black currants with spice and floral notes. Juicy fresh flavors with great structure and a long finish. Chris Kern's Forgotten Grapes donating 25% of every bottle sold to the Mary S. Roberts Pet Adoption Center.

2010 Four Vines Petite Sirah Lodi, CA. $10

Pop the cork and be instantly greeted by the scent of black cherry, nutmeg and vanilla before the glass even meets your lips. Enjoy the smooth, surprisingly velvety tannins that only the hills of Paso Robles can deliver, while flavors of rich, deep fruit and toasty, caramelized crème brulee envelop your palate like the most luxurious (faux) fur throw.
