2013 Mayu Carmenere/Syrah Chile $13 A favorite at our Chilean tasting in June...could go fast!

The 2013 Carmenere-Syrah is an unusual blend, where the Syrah is grown on a very chalky slope at high altitude, and the Carmenere grows on gravel soils. The wine aged in used oak, but the wood is imperceptible, adding hints of spices, with the herbal side of the Carmenere complementing the richness of the Syrah. It has some peppery notes, all of it in a fresh and delineated style that is elegant, quite straight forward and very drinkable. A bargain red for the table. Drink now-2018. 90 Points Parker

2013 Domaine De Fontsaite Corbieres France $14

The Laboucarie family has provided us with consistently outstanding Corbières for three decades. This boldly flavored red is bottled unfiltered, with an outrageous blaze of dark berries, black currants, and réglisse. 60% Carignan, 30% Grenache Noir, 10% Syrah Grill Meats Lamb would be awesome.

2012 Chateau Haut Rian Cotes De Bordeaux $12

65% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc - 26 year old vines located on the slopes of the village of Rions. Deep garnet color with aromas of small red and black berries and a slight hint of vanilla and spices. A round attack leads to a delicious final dominated by licorice and chocolate. Soft, ripe tannins.

2009 Russell Creek Tributary Red Wine Walla Walla $15

Focused and distinctive for its blueberry character at the core, surrounded by hints of roasted meat, tobacco and spice. Big smooth tannins. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah. 4th of July BBQ Wine for sure! Amazing value

Marietta Old Vine Red Lot 62 CA $14

A zesty red, with personality to spare, offering notes of licorice, blackberry, smoky pepper and grilled herbs. Zinfandel, Petite Sirah, Syrah and mixed Italian blacks. Drink now through 2019. 90 Points Wine Spectator I love this wine!

2012 Saladini Pilastris Rosso Piceno Italy $12.50

AKA the blackberry bastard
Tangy, offering crushed blackberry and blueberry notes, with threads of mocha, sweet smoke and herb woven into the fresh, well-knit palate. Grippy finish. Drink now through 2018
88 Points Wine Spectator
