Happy Fourth of July America!

From the "Grand Cru" at Santiam Wine & Bistro

Special Feature wine and by the glass for July!

2015 Paul Autard Chateauneuf Du Pape Blanc $38

Easily the greatest effort I've tasted from this estate, the 2015 Châteauneuf du Pape Blanc is a blockbuster that offers rich, textured, yet still lively and fresh notes of sautéed peach, orange blossom, white currants and brioche. I loved this from barrel as well, but it's gained in freshness and purity, delivering full-bodied, layered, mouth-coating aromas and flavors while never seeming heavy or cumbersome. Based on equal parts Clairette, Grenache and Roussanne, and vinified and aged in new barrels, it's up with the crème de la crème of the vintage and I suspect will age beautifully for over a decade. 95 Points Wine Advocate

The 2014 Cabernet Franc from the Reserva Especial range contains small percentages of other grapes, in this case 7% Petit Verdot and 5% Carménère. In this range half of the wine matures in oak, and the rest is kept in stainless steel for approximately one year. All these wines come from the cooler coastal part of Colchagua, from Marchigüe. It is fresh, with natural balance and good freshness, with fresh fruit and nothing jammy. Very tasty Cabernet Franc. 20,000 bottles produced. 89 Points Robert Parker

2015 Chateau Malbat Bordeaux Rouge FR $11

Its ruby red color reflects the purple notes of its youth. The freshness of its flavor comes from the red and wild berries. The attack on the palate is direct and fruity with cherry notes, typical of the Merlot. With time, it gives way to blended tannins. Aging potential : 3 - 5 years

2014 Varvaglione Primitivo del Salento Italy $11.50

Really elegant ruby red wine. BOUQUET Intense fruity aromas of mature plums, tobacco leaves and cocoa. TASTE Slightly aromatic, its finish is reminiscent of vanilla.

2015 "Old Soul" Petite Sirah, Lodi $12

To balance the prominent grip characteristic of Petite Sirah, this particular blend was crafted with a softer, more elegant body. This wine opens with immediate hints of blueberry and blackberry, followed by accents of Dutch chocolate and a subtle touch of cardamom. The palate is big and weighty with ample mid-palate and soft, velvety tannins. Pair with petite filet with Cabernet reduction, slow-braised lamb with sauteed mushrooms, or beef chorizo with cream sauce.
