Debbie's
Recommended Wine

2005 Darioush Caravan Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley $36.50

This wine is excellent and I promise Dad will love to get this wine for Father's Day! Caravan is the second label to the super-sought out, super-premium producer Darioush winery. This is a huge wine that most Parker-loving first labels would sell their souls for. A big, intoxicating aroma of ripe, plummy fruits and cedar knocks you back into your chair. There are cedary, sweet, thick, black fruit flavors with a massive mouthfeel more typical of port than Cabernet.

2006 Elk Cove Pinot Noir, Oregon $25.00

"This opens right up to a lovely, expressive nose laden with cherry blossom, plum, vanilla and butterscotch. The core of sweet raspberry and cherry holds steady into a moderately tannic finish, etched with some green tannins and dried herbs. Smooth, silky and substantial, this relative value could cellar for another 6-8 years" 90 Points Wine Enthusiast

Free hand-tied bow's if this is for DAD!

2006 Domaine d'Andezon Cotes du Rhone $13.50

This tank-fermented blend of 90% Syrah (40-year old vines) and 10% Grenache (60-year old vines) exhibits gorgeous floral, blackberry, licorice, lavender, and roasted Provençal herb-like notes. In the mouth, it reveals flavors of sweet cherry and blackberry fruit in a silky, medium-bodied, pure, long style. This is an amazing bargain! (90 Points - Robert Parker)

2006 Durigutti Malbec, Argentina $13.00

Lush, fruit-driven style, with layers of raspberry ganache, mocha, fig and red plum fruit, backed by a juicy, licorice-tinged finish. Drink now through 2009.

2006 Tilia Syrah/Malbec Blend, Argentina $10.00

Sweet and plush, with raspberry ganache, mocha and licorice notes that pump through a creamy, open-knit finish. Drink now. (88 Points - Wine Spectator)

2005 Grochau Claret, Oregon $13.75

A blend of Merlot, Cab and Cab Franc from Oregon & Washington this wine is smooth and rich with a nice touch of oak on the finish. Great wine for the BBQ excellent Value!

2006 St. Cosme Cote Du Rhone $15.00

A structured version, with a layer of bacony toast guiding tar, black currant and fig flavors. Toast holds the upper hand on the finish for now, but this has solid depth. Drink now through 2009. 100% Syrah. (90 Points - Wine Spectator)

2006 Les Jammes Pinot Noir Vin de Pays d'Oc $10.00

The ripe, generous character is here, with some fresh tannins and red berry flavors. It's open, easy-to-drink and shows good vibrant acidity.
