

First, I would like to say thank you! The last six years have been a blast and I look forward to at least another six if not more! The party was well attended and I really appreciate the kind words you had to say. The drawing was exciting and I think we'll do that again next year.

You can go to www.santiamwine.com for the winners!

Back by popular demand! Wednesday, June 24th we have invited local designer Jane Field to bring her trunk full of beautiful Pearl Beads to show, along with a wine tasting featuring wines from Belle Pente Vineyard & Winery from Carlton, Oregon... Guy's bring your Ladies.

We'll have a little something to make everyone happy!

I have been a busy bee trying to find excellent wines that are also easy on the pocket book.

If you purchase the Cheap & Cheerful Six-pack's or my recommended wines you will be rewarded with the fruits of my labor! Cheers! Debbie

2007 Ca' Del Baio Barbera d' Alba Paolina, Italy: $14

This wine was a little more than I would want to put in the Cheap & Cheerful Six-Pack. But, it is a wine that I would like you to try because it is awesome! A great gift for dad! Take home a six pack of these and save 10%.

A fresh, pleasant wine sustained by a vein of acidity and tamed by a judicious period in large oak casks.

2006 Vista Hills Treehouse Willamette Valley Pinot Noir, Oregon: $27.50

This estate-grown '06 Treehouse shows intense ripe and forward flavors, along with bright and expansive aromatics. Rich color and firm structure provide complex mouthfeel and texture. The 2006 was produced for Vista Hills at Northwest Wine Company by Laurent Montalieu. Vista Hill's donates 10% of all sales to the Clinton Foundation for College Students!

2007 Celler Can Blau "Can Blau", Montsant, Spain: $17.50

The 2007 Can Blau is purple-colored with a nose of cedar, mineral, baking spices, blueberry and black cherry. This leads to a full-bodied wine with layers of flavor, enough structure to evolve for 2-3 years, and a pure, fruit-filled finish. It will be at its peak from 2010-2018. (90+, Robert Parker)

The June Red Cheap & Cheerful 6-pack: $65

There are new and exciting wines from Oregon, Argentina, France, Italy, and California in this June's hand-picked Red & White Cheap & Cheerful. The price reflects 10% off if you buy the following six wines — your reward for trusting me. These wines are easy, ready and waiting for you to pick-up! Get one of each and be stocked-up!

Reminder: You are always able to change the mix on the red & white Cheap & Cheerful's. DADADADADADADADAD

2008 Castle Rock Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley: $13

Be the first one on the block to enjoy a 2008 Oregon Pinot Noir for only $13. Can this be true? Yes, indeed a terrific value! Flavors of berries, cinnamon, black cherries, sweet oak, and floral notes, with a long velvety finish. This versatile wine pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes. This wine offers a lot of bang for the buck!

2007 Domaine du Trapadis Côtes Du Rhone, France: $11.50

This wine is organically farmed and horse plowed. The grape is 100% Grenache. They used a natural yeast fermentation. The wine is oak free with bright fruit forward flavors. The right wine to pair with chicken, pasta and cheeses. Another excellent wine from the 2007 vintage.

2007 Tenuta Sant' Antonio SCAIA Rossa, Italy: $11

Ruby red with hints of red rose and violet, fruity with notes of red and black cherry, plum, wood fruits like blackberry, red and black currant, raspberry. The flavors are well-balanced pungency and freshness. Intense with good body despite its graceful youth. The grape is Corvina.

2007 Corvidae The Rook, Oregon: $12.50

Another super value from our friends at Owen Roe Winery! The Rook is another wine in the Raven collection. A blend of 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Syrah and 8% Merlot. A big juicy rich blend. Dark berries and a touch of cassis on the nose. The finish is a velvet glove. Enjoy these wines while they are still around and look for them again in the next vintage!

2008 Colores Del Sol Malbec, Argentina: $10

Meaning "colors of the sun" this Malbec is sourced from some of the highest vineyards in Mendoza, South America's most prestigious wine growing region. This Malbec is absolutely stunning in the glass with its deep dark garnet color, followed by enormous aromas of cherries, blackberry, currant and tea, with a finish of smoke, spice and caramel. Full bodied with ample tannins.

2006 Vaca Reserve Cabernet Rio Vaca Vineyards, CA. $13

Located 10 miles east of the Napa Valley. The property's 25-year-old vines were planted in ancient volcanic and alluvial soils, which yields fruit with complex and concentrated flavors. This cab is blended with small amounts of syrah, producing a dark wine, with ripe velvety tannins.

June White Cheap & Cheerful 6-pack: $56.50

- 2008 Moulin de Ferrand Entre-Deux-Meers, France: $8 Quenching!
 - 2008 Argiolas Costomolino, Italy: $10.00 Tempting!
 - 2008 Plowbuster Chardonnay, Oregon: $13.50 Unoaked!
 - 2008 BeauVignac, Viognier, France: $9.50 Lovely!
 - 2007 Mason Pomelo Sauvignon Blanc, California: $11.50 Refreshing!
 - 2008 LA Vieille Ferme Rosé Cote du Ventoux, France: $9 Satisfying!
