Guests are on the way to your home be prepared.

2011 Montes Classic Series, Cab Sauvignon Chile $10

The 2011 Montes Classic Cabernet Sauvignon is blended with 15% Merlot and offers a simple black currant, vanilla and violet bouquet that is joyful and well defined. The palate is medium-bodied with succulent tannin, crisp raspberry and dark cherry fruit, zesty acidity and lovely focus on the finish. At this price, it would be hard to find a better Cabernet. Drink now-2016. 90 Points Robert Parker

2012 Bula Montsant Spain $12

(50% carinena, 30% garnacha and 20% syrah, from vines that range from about 25 to 75 years of age; fermented in stainless steel and aged in French and American oak for four months): Brilliant ruby-red. Smoky, mineral-laced scents of dark berries and licorice. Chewy and focused, offering bitter cherry and cassis flavors enlivened by a note of black pepper. Dusty tannins give shape to the finish, which lingers with very good energy and sneaky sweetness. 90 Points Stephen Tanzer

2010 Mercer Canyon Horse Heaven Cabernet $14

Fresh and vibrant, with a juicy hint of pear around the core of currant and blackberry, veiled with fine tannins on the finish. Drink now through 2015. 88 Points Wine Spectator

2011 Villa Travignoli Chianti Rufino Italy $11

100% Sangiovese Pure, floral notes. well structured and harmonic on the palate; easy drinking with a soft and lingering finish. Pairs well to both light and more substantial dishes.

2011 Don Miguel Gascon Colosal Red Argentina $13

A synergy of the best Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah available to the Gascon winemaker. Deep rich black fruit with soft, round tannins and a hint of spice and licorice.

2011 Domaine De Grange de Payan French $10

Intensely spicy and precise, with lively red berry flavors and a hint of black pepper. The Grenache, which makes up the majority of the wine, is deeper and more powerful, offering cherry and black raspberry qualities lifted by zesty minerality
