2006 R Wines Luchador Shiraz, Australia: $16.50

This wine will be featured at the Monster tasting on Halloween night! "The 2006 Luchador Shiraz contains 5% Cabernet Sauvignon. 60% of the fruit was sourced from Barossa Valley and 40% from McLaren Vale. It was aged for 12 months in seasoned French and American oak. A glass-coating opaque purple, it features first-class aromas of spice box, cedar, mocha, lavender, and blueberry. Velvety-textured, fruit-driven, and intense, the wine has excellent depth of flavor and a long finish." (92 Points -Robert Parker) (I agree! -DR)

2005 Chateau St Louis la Perdix Costières De Nimes, France: $10

Grenache, Syrah & Carignan. This is a very smooth, well balanced, lightly structured wine, with aromas of red fruit, blackberry, prune and black cherry.

2005 Spellbound Petite Sirah, California: $13

A big, inky wine with ripe, plush tannins that balance with the alcohol, fruit and acidity. Hearty blackberry and blueberry flavor profile.

2006 Fescenino Roble Tempranillo, Ribera del Duero, Spain: $13

The 2006 Roble is 100% Tempranillo aged for 10 months in 33% new oak. Opaque purple-colored, it offers an outstanding bouquet of cedar, violets, saddle leather, and blackberry. This leads to a layered, mouth-filling wine, with exceptional depth and length. Give it 1-2 years and drink it through 2020. It is a superb introduction to the D.O. of Ribera del Duero as well as a great value.

2006 Bergervin Lane Fruit Bomb, Washington: $11

A classic American Red Wine, this blend of 52% Sangiovese and 48% Merlot is a beautifully silky and amazingly drinkable red blend. Beautiful aromas of ripe cherry, raspberry and chocolate, the wine continues on to a superbly pleasant and lush mouth-feel. On top of all that, the great label was designed by a former Marvel Comic artist.

2005 Basket Case Cabernet Sauvignon, Oregon: $11

Starts off with a deep cherry aroma, splashes of cassis and toasty vanilla oak spice. A nice long, juicy, silky smooth finish for this Basket Case Cabernet.
