

Crush is starting in the Willamette Valley... could it be another great vintage? The wine industry is exploding in the NW and around the world with so many interesting wines and great values. Be sure to pick up a Cheap & Cheerful and explore for yourself. Many wines are dropping in price and I am continually looking for great buys for you. Be sure to drop by the store to say "hi" and take a look around. You may just find the perfect wine for you! Our theme for October is "Dia de los Muertos". You'll want to check out the tree around the 12th - it will be creepy! Please mark your calendar to attend a few of the spectacular wine tastings scheduled for October. Also, looking ahead we will have the annual Champagne tasting on Friday, December 4th to kick off the Christmas season!

Recommended Wines

2008 Owen Roe Sinister Hand, Oregon: $23
It's back and oh, so good!

2005 Bracco Two Rivers Bordeaux Blend, Oregon: $14.50
Aromas of cassis, licorice, and dried plum are complimented with notes of cocoa, brown sugar and dark berry fruits while flavors of black cherry, blackberry, boysenberry and cassis dominate the pallet. This dark, inky wine exhibits firm acids which are supported by focused tannins, giving the impression of an intensely ripe wine with a lingering richness. Properly cellared, this wine should continue to develop over the next 5 to 10 years.

2006 RoxyAnn Claret Rouge Valley, Oregon: $25
Dark, plush and deeply concentrated, the estate blend of 40% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 25% Cabernet Franc is a luscious, complex wine that showcases layers of ripe currant, black cherry, and blackberry fruit flavors. The 2006 Claret is an elegant wine that holds its focus and gains complexity on the palate with juicy plum, anise, and mocha flavors giving way to sweet barrel spice and fine-grained tannins in the long, rich, flavorful finish.

2008 J. Scott Viognier Rogue Valley, Oregon: $15
This pretty, aromatic white wine will have you absolutely captivated. It has a little residual sugar for balance and nice acidity. It goes nicely with spicy Thai or Spanish Tapas.

2008 Berger Zweigelt Dry Red Table Wine, Austria: $13

This comes in the pop-top 1 liter bottle—a fun easy drinking wine from Austria. “Zweigelt creates a lovely, soft, aromatic red wine reminiscent of pinot noir in its cherry/raspberry scent and taste, as well as in its gentle, supple tannins. This 2008 zweigelt from Berger shows just these come-hither features. Serve this wine slightly cool with anything from a roast pork loin to a grilled cheeseburger. This is a barbecue wine supreme, by the way.” (Matt Kramer)

2006 Château De Gaudou Malbec Merlot Tannat Cahors: $9

For the money this wine is a great bargain! Full and rich with a good grip, enticing tannins, ripe plummy flavors are enhanced by the addition of merlot to the blend. Try this wine with oxtail soup, braised pork shank or short ribs over creamy polenta.

2008 Bergevin Lane Fruit Bomb, Washington: $11

A classic American red wine, this blend of 34% Syrah, 31% Merlot, 22% Cab Sauvignon, 10% Malbec, and 3% Cab Franc is a beautifully silky and amazingly drinkable red blend.
