Our Favorite October Red

2011 Ghost Pines Red Sonoma County $20

A blend of..Our Ghost Pines 2011 Red Blend showcases the complexity and balance that the right combination of the right grapes can achieve. The Bordeaux varieties of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot in this blend act as the stoic Dr. Jekyll, while the Petite Sirah, Zinfandel and Sangiovese are a classic Hyde: assertive, aggressive and maybe even a little disturbed. Aromas of blueberry and blackberry pie are framed nicely by salted caramel, spice and truffle notes. Rich and full-bodied, this blend offers chewy tannins and a long, luscious finish.

Though virtually every winemaking country is experimenting with this grape (pronounced GROON-er VELT-linn-er), no one, not even other old world makers, have been able to touch Austria's Grüner. Its most exciting trait—and the one that makes it the perfect winter wine—is the unforgettably heavy hit of white pepper in the aroma.

Great Reds from Yakima Valley

WED. OCTOBER 30TH 4-8 GEWÜRZTRAMINER

Grown all over the world, but the terroir of France's Alsace region and Italy's Alto Adige both suit the grape flawlessly. These flavor-packed wines are heavily perfumed with aromas of roses and lychee and just enough spice to make it a good match with food, particularly spicy Asian dishes.

2011 Vestini Sangiovese Italy $10

100 % Sangiovese, the primary grape of Tuscany's Chianti, is also widely grown in other regions of Italy. This version is from the hills of the region of Abruzzo. Lively, fruity and fairly light, this charming Italian red has plenty of fruit acidity, little or no wood and an ample aroma. A perfect wine to drink with pizza

2011 Murphy-Goode Homefront Red CA, $12 Support our troops

For each bottle of Homefront Red sold Murphy-Goode has committed to donating $.50 to Operation Homefront a non-profit organization that "provides emergency financial and other assistance to the families of our service members and wounded warriors."

Very pleasant aroma featuring lots of vanilla and other oaky notes plus plenty of dark fruit. There's also a little peppery spice and hint of mint. The wine tastes very smooth and just like the nose there's plenty of vanilla and sweet blackberry along with notes of black cherry, black raspberry and spice. With soft tannins, this easy to drink. It ends with good length. A blend of Syrah, Petite Sirah, Merlot and Zinfandel great value, great cause!

2011 Doña Paula Estate Malbec Argentina $13

Intense violet color. In the nose, aromas of black fruits, violets and spices. Mineral and graphite notes. Great balance and freshness in the mouth, with good concentration and medium structure. Soft tannins and persistent finish.

2009 Rioja Vega Cosecha Rioja, Spain $11

"The 2009 Cosecha has a tightly wound bouquet of blackberry, dark cherries and leather that is well-defined. The palate is smooth and velvety, underpinned by lush red berries infused with soy and red currant jam. It is supple and harmonious on the finish, which glides across the palate. This is a well-crafted Rioja. Drink now-2017". 88 Points Parker

2010 Perrin Cote du Rhone -Villages France $12

A soft and friendly style, this red offers flavors of cherry compote and melted red licorice that show a dash of sweet toast to frame the finish. Drink now.

88 Points Wine Spectator

2009 Patit Creek Cellars "The Creek" WA $15

Our 2009 "The Creek" is a fantastic red blend at a great price. The nose is layered with bright characteristics of fruit, spice and earthy tones. On the palate the tannins are firm yet integrated, with structure that far exceeds it's price. With some open time, rich Bordeaux fruits of red plum, black cherry and cassis are predominant with subtle lavender notes from the addition of Grenache. The price make it is easy to open and be proud!
